“TCG is delighted to honor the deep contributions made to the theatre field by producers Ruth and Stephen Hendel, and designer Ming Cho Lee,” said Teresa Eyring, executive director of TCG. “The Hendels’ body of work as producers ranges from Fela! to Bengal Tiger at the Baghdad Zoo, and their contributions as trustees at TCG Member Theatres like Eugene O’Neill Theater Center, LABYrinth Theater Company and The Play Company are immeasurable. The opportunity to celebrate their legacy alongside that of seminal designer Ming Cho Lee—and in the company of so many distinguished TCG playwrights—is not to be missed.”

TCG will be publishing Ming Cho Lee: A Life in Design, a retrospective of his work by Arnold Aronson, in the fall of 2013. Gala attendees will have a unique opportunity to have their names published in that title, as well as other 2013-14 TCG Books titles. The Gala Evening will also feature performances from TCG Member Theatres around the nation. Learn more about the 2013 Gala Evening on TCG’s website: <http://www.tcg.org/events/gala/>.

TCG’s constituency has grown from a handful of groundbreaking theatres to nearly 700 member theatres and affiliate organizations and more than 12,000 individuals nationwide. TCG offers its members networking and knowledge-building opportunities through conferences, events, research and communications; awards grants, approximately $2 million per year, to theatre companies and individual artists; advocates on the federal level; and serves as the U.S. Center of the International Theatre Institute, connecting its constituents to the global theatre community.
