New from TCG Books:
Love and Information* by Caryl Churchill

NEW YORK, NY – Theatre Communications Group (TCG) is pleased to announce the publication of Love and Information* by Caryl Churchill, the Obie Award-winning author of Cloud 9 and Top Girls. Declared the “greatest living English playwright” by Tony Kushner, Caryl Churchill premiered her newest play at London’s Royal Court Theatre in fall 2012. Love and Information will receive its U.S. premiere at New York Theatre Workshop in the 2013-2014 season.

“This mysterious, powerful play is like a disquisition on two of the most powerful poles in our lives: needing to know and needing to love. It is also the work of a great artist... Churchill has lit a blazing trail. Her career is unmatched in contemporary theatre and she stands with the greats in insisting, with brilliance, on her vision.” — Guardian

A theatrical kaleidoscope exploring the rapidly-changing world we live in, Love and Information depicts a world where non-stop streams of information threaten the very essence of our humanity, culminating in what the Guardian heralds as the “play that everyone should see.” Churchill reaffirms her continued ability to reinvent herself as a playwright and keep her finger on the pulse of contemporary life, as she illuminates society’s fascination with high-speed information using her signature wit, candor, nimbleness of language and more than one hundred characters just trying to make sense of what they know.

“Touching and funny... The great thing about Caryl Churchill is that you never know where she is going to jump next... The wit, invention and structural ingenuity of Churchill’s work are remarkable and, like the sexual tease in a Sondheim song, she never does anything twice. — Telegraph

Caryl Churchill is one of the most influential playwrights of our time. She is the author of more than twenty plays, including Seven Jewish Children, Drunk Enough to Say I Love You, Top Girls, This is a Chair, Far Away, A Number, Cloud 9 and Serious Money.
